

Provide a Place to Ponder...Purchase a Bench

More than 10 miles of trails are planned for CLC's newest public conservation areas. You can provide opportunities for guests and hikers to rest and ponder the beauty of Columbia County by purchasing a bench.

CLC needs four benches at the High Falls Conservation Area in Philmont and eight benches at the Hand Hollow Conservation Area in New Lebanon.

Leadership donors will be recognized in CLC's newsletter and in associated kiosks, signate, and brochures.

Step Ahead...Sponsor a Section of a Boardwalk

Planned public access improvements at the Ooms Conservation Area include more than three miles of hiking trails and a 150-foot boardwalk that will traverse a wetland and provide access to Sutherland Pond.

You can establish a community treasure, either directly or in memory of a loved one, by sponsoring a section of the Ooms Conservation Area boardwalk.

Leadership donors will be recognized in CLC's newsletter and in associated kiosks, signage, and brochures.

Honor a Loved one or Lead by Example... Plant a Commemorative Tree

Small, tree-lined parking areas will soon greet visitors to the entrances to the Hand Hollow Conservation Area in New Lebanon, and the Ooms Conservation Area at Sutherland Pond in Chatham.

You can honor a loved one or your connection to Columbia County and leave a lasting legacy by purchasing a 2" caliper Red-Maple commemorative tree that will be planted at one of these sites. A total of 25 trees are needed.

Leadership donors will be recognized in CLC's newsletter and in associated kiosks, signage, and brochures.
